YOUTHS WRECK AMBULANCE STOLEN HERE

D. C. Cab Company
Valued Demolished
Vehicle at $2000

A $2000 ambulance, stolen Friday night from the Daly City Ambulance and Cab company by two San Francisco youths, was found almost completely demolished in a field one-half mile north of Moss Beach early Saturday morning, according to Daly City police.

The crash, in which the ambulance sheared off a telephone guy pole, skidded 357 feet and overturned in a field 20 feet off the highway, climaxed a wild ride in which the two former Civilian Conservation Corps youths had sped down the highway with siren screeching.

Held in the county jail at Redwood City, the two boys at first denied the crime. Then changing an earlier story, Robert Layman, 18, 1932 Folsom street, San Francisco, admitted taking the ambulance from the front of the company's office at 3348 San Jose avenue, and implicated his companion, Milton William, 17, 154 Farallone street, San Francisco, according to Deputy Sheriff Al Coe of Sharp Park. Neither of the two was hurt.

Albert Garibaldi, co-owner of the ambulance, identified Layman and Williams as the pair who priced a $60 car at his used car lot at 12:25 a. m. He said he became suspicious of their actions and removed the car keys. Half an hour later he found the ambulance gone.

Coe said he saw the ambulance, traveling at a high rate of speed with the red lights on and siren wide open, pass his home at 1 a. m. Thinking there had been an accident, he attempted to follow but was outdistanced and abandoned the pursuit at Montara.

The wrecked ambulance was found four hours later by San Francisco duck hunters. They reported the accident to State Traffic Officer Jack Quinlan. He in turn notified Coe.

The two youths were found asleep in a ditch by the roadside two miles north of Moss Beach. They admitted they had been drinking.

Jefferson Instructor Has Article Accepted

Dante P. Lembi, instructor in modern languages at Jefferson Union high school, had his second article accepted for publication this week by The Italica, well-known education magazine devoted to professional methods in the teaching of Italian.

Entitled "Esercizi Interpretativi per Prima Settimana d'Italiano," Lembi's treatise deals with technical problems and original experiments in the field of Italian instruction and was written while he was attending Stanford university this summer.

Lembi's first article, accepted earlier this year, will appear in print in the December Italica.

Can Man of 70 Be Elected President?

Plan Xmas Party For Local Children

Representatives of eight civic organizations met in the council chambers of the City Hall Monday evening to make arrangements for the Children's Christmas theater party to be held in the Daly City theater on the afternoon of December 18. Local PTA groups, Masonic Lodge, Catholic Daughters, Womens Civic club, American Legion and Legion auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the WPA Recreation department are giving their time to make this year's party an outstanding success.

The tentative program will include Lembi's famous Indians of Rhythm. This will be but one of the Indians' sixteen appearances scheduled over a period of a month. Other Indian appearances include San Bruno's Silver anniversary, California Womens club Christmas party and an evening at the War Memorial building.

Also present will be Miss Inez Horn's Spanish Unit and Children's Band. Miss Horn's Children's Band is well remembered from last year's Christmas party as literally stopping the show. There will also be a full length approved movie.

The Womens Civic Club has taken over the responsibility of candy to be given to the children. The party will include all children. (Continued on Page 4)

Ride Ends In Tangle With Water Hydrant

A thirteen-year-old boy's stolen joy-ride, which ended with a sudden crash into a water hydrant on Hillcrest drive, cost four members of the water department an all night's work in the wet and cold, Monday night.

Richard Burton, 281 Niantic avenue, admitted to Daly City police that he had taken the keys to his mother's car without her knowledge. The youth's brief ride came to an end when the machine plunged into Hydrant 89 on Hillcrest drive, breaking the top of the hydrant completely off.

A. J. Bodien, water superintendent, reported that his crew of four worked from 10:45 p. m. to 6 a. m. repairing the damage.

Mayor Expected In D. C. Saturday

"Homeward Bound, expect to arrive Saturday"—thus read a card received from Mayor Paul G. Selmi, en route from Detroit with Daly City's two shiny new busses, by City Engineer Julius F. Castellan, Monday. Selmi also reported fair weather and good driving.

To inaugurate service and celebrate the start of the schedule, Daly City will turn out November 30 to inspect the busses and join in the parade. The city council has made arrangements for the parade to start at Market and Mission, Colma, which will be the terminal when regular service is started. It is planned to have the Daly City band occupy the first bus, with the second one giving free rides to the public.

The Daly City Fire department will be in the parade with their fire trucks, and the police department with their police cars, and all Daly City residents are invited to load their friends and families into cars and join in the cavalcade.

Starting at 7 p. m. the busses will travel over the route that has been designated for regular service. From Colma, the parade will move north along Mission street, east on Wellington to Hanover, north on Hanover to Acton, west on Acton to Sickels and then to Alemany boulevard. From Alemany boulevard they will travel to Junipero Serra boulevard and then turn north to Ocean avenue which will be the northern terminus. On the return trip the same route will be taken as far as Westlake and Mission streets, where they will turn west to Junipero Serra boulevard, thence south to Washington street, east to San Pedro avenue, and then north to Market and Mission.

These two busses, costing approximately $5000 each, will be painted yellow with blue trim, with the circular monogram, "Daly City Municipal Bus Line" on each side. Having a fifty passenger capacity, and with the power plant in the rear, these busses have every safety feature built in. They are of the double door type, front and center, to facilitate quick loading and unloading. Upholstery is deep and comfortable.

The busses will start on their regular schedule December 1, 6 a. m. Starting this service will consummate nearly a year's work and planning on the part of Mayor Selmi and other city officials, to give Daly City a fast and adequate transportation system.

Dog Pound Plans Are Completed

Plans for Daly City's new $2000 dog pound took definite shape this week as the city council prepared to advertise for bids for its construction.

Located 60 feet down the hill from Reservoir No. 3 and fronting on Orange street, the 25 x 30 foot structure will contain ten dog stalls with concrete floors, accommodations for between 20 and 30 dogs at one time. The building will also house the pound truck and will contain a room for an attendant, as well as a gas death chamber for the humane killing of unwanted animals.

The building will be fronted with stucco, with rustic walls and sides, and will contain hot and cold running water.

City Engineer Julius F. Castellan also stated that official approval had been received early this week from the State Division of Highways for making Knowles avenue, from Mission to Junipero Serra, a major street.

Uninvited Guest Pilfers Home

Stealing little more than two dimes from a child's bank and several pairs of socks and taking liberal privileges of an uninvited guest landed 15-year-old Tommy Gunn, 330 Grafton avenue, in juvenile court at Redwood City, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Perkins, 426 Willits street, came home Friday evening as usual to find things not at all in their usual order. An intruder had dumped every drawer in the house, eaten a meal, taken a pail of water to the front room to wash his feet and otherwise made himself at home.

Following clues and leads, local police apprehended Tommy Gunn. The San Francisco youth readily admitted his escapade and was turned over to the juvenile court.

Jeff Loses 20-7 To Burlingame Fri.

Jefferson played their last game of the season when they lost to Burlingame, 20-7, on the Jefferson field, Friday.

Jefferson got off to a bad start when they lost the ball on the second play of the game on a fumble. Burlingame scored on the fourth play. The conversion was good.

Half-way through the second, Burlingame worked on line plunges and end runs to their second score. No conversion.

Jeff took the air near the end of the half but Burlingame intercepted and ran fifty yards for another score, and then made the conversion.

In the third, with half the second string playing, Jeff tore and plunged through Burlingame's defense for a score. A pass from DeMartini to DeBono was good for the extra point.

Rigler, Jeff center, got his team out of a tight spot in the fourth when he retrieved a Burlingame fumble on the Jeff ten. Poddig threw himself on another Burlingame fumble on the Jeff three-yard line, and again Jeff prevented another score.

Playing their last game for Jefferson were Giusti, Eldrup, Stevens, Dykeman, Wilmoth, Rosenberg and Bannantyne. Capps, Rigler, Poddig, Hertz and Faulk, with Lekoff, DeBono, DeMartini and Andriola will form the nucleus of Jefferson's team next year.

Swiss Birthrate

The Swiss, with the world's lowest birthrate, may soon become a "vanishing race," latest vital statistics about the nation disclose. Swiss babies born in 1936 were 20,000 fewer than those in 1900, and between those dates the number of births a 1,000 potential mothers slumped from 266 to 131. Should the decline continue, Switzerland's death rate in 1945 will exceed its birth rate.

Eighth Installment

History of Daly City Fire Department

(Editor's Note: This is the eighth installment of an informal history of the Daly City Fire department, dedicated to "those who serve—not for personal gain—but for the welfare of all.")

Through the cooperation of William J. C. Goldkuhl, E. W. Goldkuhl sr., and Edward W. Goldkuhl jr., authors, and the Daly City Record this interesting story is made available to the general public.)

Plans were formulated during 1915 by the various companies to obtain land upon which to build their own fire houses. This often led to much debate on price and location as the funds in the Departments were always at a low working level. Electric lights during these last years had come to Daly City facilitating the job of fighting fires to a great extent.

July 27, 1916, saw the re-organization of Company Number 5 with the following membership: C. Verbugge, Captain; C. Rheinhardt, Lieutenant; E. Kingsland, Marshal; J. P. Moran, Secretary-Treasurer, and Firemen: C. Rodenberger, F. Morten, J. Bolger, R. N. Sehmon, Mr. Kennedy, J. Jackson, C. Schubert, W. F. Oakley, L. Ruppel, F. Cangelosi and Mr. Raurieu.

In the latter part of August with the death of Brother O. Rato, there was brought into the Fire Department a rite which has become in these present years one of much beauty—the simple burial ceremony over the body of a deceased comrade. This ceremony was and is a very touching and beautiful affair. Little did the comrades of the year 1916 realize in first paying this tribute to a departed brother with what great importance and beauty it would be looked upon a quarter of a century later.

In April of 1916 came the election of George Augustin of Company Number 4 to the Board of Fire Commissioners, and W. Sweeney was elected to the captaincy of Company 4.

Then followed August 16, 1916, another red letter day in the progress of Daly City and in the life of the Fire Department. Paved streets had been laid by the Ransom-Crume company in the Vista Grande section of Daly City. With the laying of these streets, mobile action to and from fires became much faster, and with the speeded up action, fire losses in the city were greatly reduced. 1916 also saw the erection of new fire houses by some of the companies.

Scout Troop 141 Plans Wiener Roast

City Officials Guest of Crocker

City officials met with Crocker PTA last Tuesday to discuss civic problems and the part that the PTA's play in helping to build a better city government.

Councilman Henry Sundermann, acting for Mayor Paul G. Selmi, introduced the speakers of the day. Police Chief A. L. Hilton spoke of the importance of teaching children, both by example and precept, of the necessity for obeying traffic safety laws. A. J. Bodien, representing both the water and the fire departments, since Fire Chief Andrew P. Chesney was unable to be present, explained the part of the fire and water companies in the safety of Daly City citizens, and discussed the improvements made within the past few years. City Engineer Julius F. Castelan appealed to the parents and teachers to cooperate in helping to save buildings under construction from the damage caused by thoughtless children. He also explained the work of the city engineer's office, the functions of a purchasing agent, and the activities of the street department.

Reports were given on the two district meetings, and Mrs. Virginia Davidson was appointed delegate to attend the district meeting Friday with President Mildred Seiler.

Mrs. Julia V. Jordan reported progress on the bazaar which is to be held near the top of the hill on Friday, December 1.

Meetings of the Sew and Sew club were held Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. Seiler, and Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. O. D. Pauw. The meeting for next week, the last one before the bazaar, will be at the home of Mrs. Julia V. Jordan, 572 Bellevue avenue, 10:30 a. m., Thursday.

Dead End Kids 'Wash Their Faces' In New Picture

"The Angels With Dirty Faces" have cleaned up some and will be seen tomorrow at the Daly City theatre in their latest Warner Brothers picture, "The Angels Wash Their Faces." The "angels," of course, are the famed Dead End Kids—Billy Halop, Bernard Punsley, Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell and Bobby Jordan.

The cast also includes Ann Sheridan, the famed "oomph girl" who for the first time is allowed to show her fine acting ability.

Slightly reformed and this time on the side of the law, the Dead End Kids are placed in a slum tenement neighborhood.

The Dead Enders set out to gather evidence against an adult criminal for two reasons—first, because one of their number was burned to death in a tenement blaze set by the ring and, second, because one of their club members, Frankie Thomas, has been framed and the blame pinned on him.

Companion feature on the new bill is "These Glamour Girls," starring Lana Turner and Lew Ayres.

Many thousands of people have taken these remarkable tours, by which the traveler can leave his home, visit San Francisco, travel over a choice of many scenic routes to New York, and then back over an entirely different route, making a complete circle of the United States if he chooses.

The mangel is a type of coarse beet ordinarily used as a stock food. Their culture is practically the same as for beets, but since they grow to a large size, individual specimens often weighing 10 or more pounds, they require more space. The plants are therefore thinned to stand from 10 to 12 inches apart in the rows.
